

In article <93115.120409ICBAL@ASUACAD.BITNET>, <ICBAL@ASUACAD.BITNET> writes...

>You might look for an allergy doctor in your area who uses sublingual >drops instead of shots for treatment. (You are given a small bottle of >antigens; 3 drops are placed under the tongue for 5 minutes.) My

This homeopathic remedies. I tried the dander one for a month. 15 drops three times a day. I didn't notice any change what's so ever. How long were you using the drops before you noticed a difference?

For me this treatment is more expensive because my insurance will cover traditional medicine.